	Stephen J. Castellano		3727

--The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address--

The Appeal Brief filed on August 4, 2003 is defective for failure to comply with one or more provisions of 37 CFR 1.192(c). See MPEP § 1206.

To avoid dismissal of the appeal, applicant must file IN TRIPLICATE a complete new brief in compliance with 37 CFR 1.192(c) within the longest of any of the following three TIME PERIODS: (1) ONE MONTH or THIRTY DAYS from the mailing date of this Notification, whichever is longer; (2) TWO MONTHS from the date of the notice of appeal; or (3) within the period for reply to the action from which this appeal was taken. EXTENSIONS OF THESE TIME PERIODS MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136.

The brief does not contain the items required under 37 CFR 1.192(c), or the items are not under the proper hea	ading or in the proper order.

2.			e brief does not contain a statement of the status of all claims, pending or cancelled, or does not identify the bealed claims (37 CFR 1.192(c)(3)).
3.			east one amendment has been filed subsequent to the final rejection, and the brief does not contain a tement of the status of each such amendment (37 CFR 1.192(c)(4)).
4.			e brief does not contain a concise explanation of the claimed invention, referring to the specification by page d line number and to the drawing, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 1.192(c)(5)).
5.		The	e brief does not contain a concise statement of the issues presented for review (37 CFR 1.192(c)(6)).
6.	$\boxtimes$	A s	single ground of rejection has been applied to two or more claims in this application, and
	(a)		the brief omits the statement required by 37 CFR 1.192(c)(7) that one or more claims do not stand or fall together, yet presents arguments in support thereof in the argument section of the brief.
	(b)	$\boxtimes$	the brief includes the statement required by 37 CFR 1.192(c)(7) that one or more claims do not stand or fall together, yet does not present arguments in support thereof in the argument section of the brief.
7.	$\boxtimes$	The	e brief does not present an argument under a separate heading for each issue on appeal (37 CFR 1.192(c)(8)).
8.		The	e brief does not contain a correct copy of the appealed claims as an appendix thereto (37 CFR 1.192(c)(9)).
9.		Oth	ner (including any explanation in support of the above items):
		See	e Continuation Sheet

Stephen J. Castellano Primary Examiner Art Unit: 3727

Continuation of 9. Other (including any explanation in support of the above items): Item 6: For each issue on appeal, identify whether the claims stand or fall together or do not stand or fall together. If claims do not stand or fall together, specifically identify, for each issue, which claims are grouped together as standing or falling together and which claims stand or fall by themselves. For each issue, applicant must provide a separate argument for each grouping stating why that grouping is separately patentable should the other groupings be deemed unpatentable.

Specifically for issue II, applicant has not included the required statement that one or more claims stand or fall together but has stated that claims 1-28 do not stand or fall together in the first paragraph of the Grouping of Claims section and identifies subgroupings B-F for Issue II which implies that claims 6-18 and 21-26 do not stand or fall together. There is no mention of claims 8, 9, 11, 12, 15, 16, 18, 21 and 23-26 in any of subgroupings B-F of Issue II. Therefore, the grouping and the subsequent arguments are incomplete for not specifying where each claim stands or falls.

In addition the arguments are not complete. Why is claim 7 of group D separately patentable from claim 22 of group C? Why is claim 7 separately patentable from claims 10 and 17 of group F? Why is claim 14 separately patentable from claims 10 and 17 of group F? Why is claim 14 separately patentable from claims 10 and 17 of group F? This doesn't mention all the groupings and claims left out by not mentioning claims 8, 9, 11, 12, 15, 16, 18, 21 and 23-26.

Item 7: There is no argument presented for issue VIII pertaining to a 112, second paragraph rejection.
